Nurses' Aid Class Forming Here Soon

The Nurses' Aid class met at the home of Mrs. Milo McAllister Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ruth Hopkins was present to explain the course to the 12 women who have already registered. Mrs. Hopkins provides 80 hours in a hospital, which will be decided at an early date for women from the ages of 18 to 50. If there are any others who would be interested in taking this course, please get in touch with Mrs. Milo McAllister as soon as possible, for the classes are to start very soon.

The training course committee has decided to give a shorter course on Nutrition and Canteen which will be put on by the State Extension Service instead of the Red Cross committee. The course is a series of six lessons on Nutrition and six lessons in learning how to feed large groups. Those who wish to take only Nutrition may take the first six lessons after which a Civilian Defense Certificate will be awarded. Miss Thelma Gallagher is attending the first instruction course given by Miss Walsh, the home demonstration agent, at East Bethel today. Those who have registered for this course will be notified as to the date of Miss Gallagher's first lesson. These lessons will be held at Gould Academy.

BOY SCOUTS

Eleven Scouts and four visitors were present at the Boy Scout meeting Monday evening. Edward Little led the meeting. The following tests were passed: Second Class completed, Edward Little; First Class badges, Guy Swan; Oath and Law, Knots, Larry Clement; Oath and Law, Ellis Annis. Four Scouts gave a First Aid demonstration at the P. T. A. meeting. The game committee for the next meeting is Donald Walker and Laurence Kendall.

Miss Barbara Hall was at home from Portland over the week-end.

RICHARD DAVIS' MILL BURNS SUNDAY NIGHT—REBUILDING STARTED

The newly erected sawmill of Richard Davis at East Bethel was gutted by fire late Sunday afternoon. The fire, which was spreading rapidly when discovered apparently started in the vicinity of the heater or lighting plant. The flames soon reached a large tank of diesel fuel which exploded, throwing the blazing oil over the central portion of the mill. On the arrival of the Bethel fire pumper the fire was extinguished, using the booster tank, which was refilled once. Volunteers had put up a losing fight in the meantime, using snow to quench the flames.

The mill which was formerly operated at Sturtevant Pond was set up last fall at East Bethel, and had been running only a few weeks. Ten men were employed at the mill. There was no insurance and the damage was estimated at over $2,000.

The work of clearing away the ruins and rebuilding was begun Tuesday morning.

FRANK ABBOTT

Frank Abbott passed away about 5 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home at Skillingston after being confined to his home for over a year.

He was born in Bethel Feb. 6, 1862, the son of John and Sarah Ackley Abbott. He was educated in the schools of Bethel, and had always made farming his occupation. He was a member of the Methodist Church and was superintendent of the Sunday School for several years, and also a teacher.

He is survived by his wife, Lillian Morrill Abbott; a son, Burton, of Grover Hill; and several cousins.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Greenleaf's funeral home, with Rev. M. A. Gordon officiating. Interment will be at the Riverside Cemetery.

Skidding Car Injures Man in Mayville

Trafton Bartlett was badly injured Wednesday afternoon, while walking near the home of Wallace Warren in Mayville when a car driven by Miss Francine Warren skidded on the icy road and turned around, hitting him in the legs. It was necessary to have 12 stitches taken in one of his feet to close the cut and his legs were bruised, but no bones were broken.

The only damage to the car was a bent bumper where it hit a pole.

BAND AND LOUD SPEAKING SYSTEM TO BE USED AT OXFORD-GOULD GAME

On Friday night the Gould Academy quintet will resume its encounters in the Western Maine Conference, entertaining Oxford High School at Bethel. In the 10-calls' only Conference game so far the team came through with a victory over Norway 31-25. The strength of the Oxford five is not known but they have always given the "Blue and Gold" plenty of real competition and another good game is anticipated.

Basketball fans will be entertained throughout the evening by the Gould Academy Band and fans will also be given a chance to learn the players and a little bit more about what's going on in the game as regards scoring, fouls, etc. through the loud speaking system which will be tried out Friday for the first time this year.

Gould at South Paris Wednesday Another Conference battle slated for next Wednesday finds Gould traveling to South Paris. Gould-South Paris games need no commenting on for fans of Oxford County. They have been the keenest most bitterly contested, and hottest affairs of the season, year after year. This 1942 production looks to be another typical of the past as South Paris has been winning game after game against schoolboy competitors. The "Blue and Gold" team of Gould to date has played only four games but have won three and dropped one. With the game at South Paris the edge probably will be with the Paris Cardinals in this first meeting.

GOULD DEFEATS GORHAM

43-25 Gould defeated Gorham Tuesday evening in a game that got under way with some good fast basketball but gradually simmered down to a very dismal showing for both teams. The winners gained an early lead which they held throughout the game. Although Gould won, they played good ball only during the early part of the game. Throughout most of the game the passing was very poor and exceptionally sloppy at times. The defense of the winners was good most of the time but there were numerous lapses in that department too. The team's substantial margin of victory was gained mainly through excellent follow-up play underneath the basket.

Coach Anderson was much disappointed in the team work and passing as the team has been doing a great job in the department during the practice sessions and then have fallen down miserably in the last two games. It seemed that both teams were on edge and jittery throughout the game. Both clubs previously were undefeated by schoolboy teams, hence both were over anxious to maintain their record.

The preliminary game proved a last period thriller as both clubs speeded up action to top speed with first one club and then the other gaining the lead. Gould's understudies finally won 27-27, Jordan with eight points led the scoring for the Juniors.

UNREGISTERED MEN, 20-45 YEARS, TO BE LISTED FEBRUARY 16

Approximately 9,000 male residents in Maine will be registered in the 20 and 21-year-old age groups on Feb. 16, Brig. Gen. James W. Hanson, State Director of Selective Service, announced today.

National Selective Service Headquarters anticipates a total registration in Continental United States of about 9,000,000 men between the ages of 20 and 45 years, the Director has been advised, and of these about 1,650,000 will be in the 20 and 21-year-old group.

It also is estimated that around 7,350,000 in the 36 to 44 year-old group will be registered throughout the United States on Feb. 16 together with some in the 21 to 36-year-old groups who were unable or neglected to register at the two previous registrations.

The age groups to be registered on Feb. 16 include all men not previously registered who have attained their twentieth birthday on Dec. 31, 1941, and who have not reached their forty-fifth birthday on Feb. 16, 1942; that is: All unregistered males resident in the United States who were born between Feb. 17 1897 and Dec. 31, 1921.

Volunteers May Still Choose Service Branch

Men who volunteer for enlistment in the Army of the United States may still choose the branch of service they prefer, it was disclosed Sunday night, by Lt. Col. John L. Rice, Corps Area Recruiting Officer, who added that an intensified recruiting drive is planned. Men registered under Selective Service are eligible for enlistment before they receive their final induction orders.

"There are 3023 vacancies in various branches of the Army to be filled during January," Colonel Rice said. "In the Air Corps alone, 2127 men including 182 automobile mechanics are needed for ground duty during the next four weeks. The Infantry has openings for 375 recruits, while the Medical Department is seeking 217 new men. Other vacancies are: 151 in the Ordnance Department, 97 in the Signal Corps and 32 in the Chemical Warfare Service. Qualified applicants between the ages of 18 and 35 years, inclusive, may enlist immediately for any of these vacancies."

Colonel Rice also announced that direct enlistment has been authorized for two Army Air Bases in New England where openings are available. A total of 138 men are sought for Windsor Locks, Conn., and eight vacancies are listed at Bangor, Maine. Applicants for enlistment are advised to bring their birth certificates with them upon application, as well as the written consent of their parents or guardians if they are under 21 years of age.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

DOCUMENTARY PHOTOGRAPHY

Want an interesting picture project? Try making a pictorial record of your home town.

AT FREQUENT intervals, in discussions of picture-making, the term "Documentary Photography" turns up. And to many people it seems like the "bad penny" which keeps coming back.

With such a record you're probably wondering why the subject is even mentioned here. Well, the reason is that today I'd like to suggest that you try your hand at documentary photography and become a photo historian. For instance, suppose you had a picture record of every important event in your home town during the last five years, or every important local character. Right now, at your fingertips, you'd have a veritable treasury of local history.

There's no reason why you can't assemble such an album if you start picturing the local scene at once. Thirty years from now people will be wondering how we lived. They'll want to know what sort of clothes we wore, what kind of houses we lived in, what Main Street looked like, what kind of cars we drove, who the important people were and what they were like. Of course, we could sit down and write a book giving them all of the details, but there never has been—and there never will be—any book which can describe anything more clearly than you can, in a fraction of a second, by means of your camera.

In fact, there's so much that honestly deserves a place in your album I'd suggest you specialize in two or three principal subjects. Your section of town, for one, should have a special division all to itself.

Another section I'd devote just to people—the way they dress, their work, and the games they play. That's a broad field because things change so fast—fashions in clothes, for instance.

Maybe that isn't your idea of documentary photography. Perhaps you think it's necessary to photograph big, dramatic subjects. Well, you're wrong! It's the little personal items—seasoned with human interest—that makes interesting history. And that is the type of subject that is often overlooked.

MAINE WORKERS GET BACK WAGE PAYMENTS

Payments of back wages to 635 Maine workers amounting to $9,649.64 were made during December as result of the enforcement of the Wage and Hour Law in this state it was announced today by William P. Shannon, in charge of the office of the Division, in Portland.

The back wages represents the difference between what the workers actually were paid by their employers and what was due them under the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Federal law. These requirements at the present time are, for all establishments subject to the Act, a minimum of 30 cents an hour except for such industries for which higher minimums have been established by wage order, and time and one-half the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 in any one week. Some of the important wage orders affecting Maine workers are: pulp and primary paper, 40 cents; lumber and timber products 35 cents; shoes, 40 cents; woolen textile, 40 cents.

At the same time it was announced that $149,692.36 was paid in back wages to New England workers as a result of the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Wage and Hour Law during December.

Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions.

These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging back ache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights; swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

GOULD DEFEATED IN OVERTIME 22-21

In a closely contested battle that saw the lead change many times thru out the game the Alumni came from behind in the final minute of play to tie the score 21-21. In the extra 3 minute period the only counter was a free throw toss by Bud Clough which won the game.

The game started out to be a real basketball game with both teams playing clever ball but just as suddenly the whole affair turned into a debacle of deliberate fouling with no attempt to play defensive ball according to the rules. Inability of the Academy team to make good their free throw chances cost them the game: as they missed 12 out of 21 free throws. The Alumni was hot from the free throw mark connecting for 10 out of 13 tries.

The Alumni starting team with C. Smith and Bill Howe forwards Wilson Bartlett center, and Hutchins and Clough guards presented a fast clever passing team with plenty of possibilities for an excellent aggregation. Their win over the school-boys will probably be just what the Gould team needed before entering into their regular schedule of games.

In the preliminary game the Alumni won over the J. V's by a 15-11 score.

It is reported that Bethel's skating rink, although in the pink of condition, is having little use so far this season. During the past several winters the village rink has been a popular center for groups of the young and younger people. Skating is one of the most healthful winter sports, and on a rink like ours one of the safest. As the project is supported by the citizens of the Village Corporation, if it is not used it may become a lost privilege. Remember there are no "thin ice" accidents on a skating rink like ours!

Headmaster and Mrs. Elwood Ireland were in Augusta Monday and Tuesday where they were the guests of Principal and Mrs. Everett Perkins of Cony High School. While there Mr. Ireland had conferences with Harrison C. Lyseth, advisor of secondary schools of the state, Commissioner Harry V. Gilson, and the Adjutant General. He also heard Governor Sewall deliver his address at the joint session.

While in Augusta, Mr. Ireland spoke to the assembly of Cony High School and led them in a song service. He also had charge of the music at the joint Parent Teachers' Association meeting which was held at Augusta that evening.

It seems to be the unanimous opinion of all people that Mr. Ireland was able to contact that both the pupils and teachers in our secondary schools should remain fixed for the time being. The army would not want the younger boys and they feel that the teachers have a very important part to fill in the schools.

Thursday will mark the beginning of the modern dance program to the girls' gym classes. At this time, Mrs. Ireland will play the piano which furnishes the music and rhythm.

The new jackets which were purchased for the ski team have arrived and will be much appreciated by the team. It will bring many favorable comments from the spectators who watch the boys perform.

Monday afternoon in the assembly hall with the children of the grade school as paying guests, the Verne Slout Company presented the "Theatre Work Shop" before a large and appreciative student body. It was the fourth of a series of programs which brings outside towns to Bethel.

The Ski Meet which was scheduled to be held this next Saturday at Bridgton has been postponed because of snow conditions. In its place will be held an informal ski hike for the members of the ski teams and possibly for a few other boys who may be interested.

CANADA is calling up some thousands of women for duty in the auxiliary services of the Dominion's army and air force. The women are not drafted but volunteer, and they are relieving men for battle. Distinctive uniforms have been designed for these women by a Canadian fashion expert. The photograph shows a member of the Canadian Women's Army Corps wearing her winter great coat which has a half-belted back, wide collar which can button close to the neck for warmth, slanted pockets and beech brown shoulder straps to contrast with the black and brass buttons. The back of the cap can be folded down to protect the hair and neck in stormy weather.

Nation's Youth Bolster Men Behind U. S. Guns

Training for the Industrial Front

Aubrey Williams Leads Youth Workers

Learning a Job By Doing It

PORTLAND—(Special)—Every thirty days Maine NYA supplies 350 of the national total of 36,400 shop-trained NYA youth who join the battle of production behind the men behind U. S. guns, according to a report just made public by Aubrey Williams, administrator of the National Youth Administration.

"Under the defense program the NYA makes available practical shop experience to youth between 17 and 24 years of age," the report states.

"Emphasis is placed on preparation of workers to do the jobs required in ship building, aviation, machine tools and the mechanized branches of the armed forces. Young men are groomed for war production jobs by doing similar jobs on NYA projects. From February 1, 1941, to December 1, 1941, a total of 2,878 Maine youth have gone from NYA projects to jobs in private industry."

The report indicates a complete streamlining of the NYA program throughout the country with emphasis on quick basic training along lines where a scarcity of defense workers may be expected in the immediate future.

According to Administrator Williams, a grand total of 374,451 youth went from the NYA program to jobs in private industry from February to December of this year. Total number of youth at present employed nationally in NYA work experience shops and resident centers is 242,000.

A WEEK OF THE WAR

Summarizing Information on the Important Developments of the Week, Made Available by Official Sources, through and including Friday

The President, in a message to Congress said he had directed Federal agencies to arrange a new schedule of war production calling for 60,000 planes in 1942, including 45,000 combat craft and 125,000 in 1943; 20,000 anti-aircraft guns in 1942 and 35,000 in 1943; 8,000,000 poundweight tons in merchant ships in 1942 and 10,000,000 in 1943.

The President told Congress he would order the U. S. armed forces to a world-wide front to find the enemy and "hit him and hit him again whenever and wherever we can reach him." He said U. S. forces would take up positions if necessary in the British Isles, the Far East and on all oceans and bases within and without the New World necessary to protect the Western Hemisphere.

The President proposed total expenditures in the fiscal year 1943 of $77,000,000,000. Of this $56,000,000 would be for the war. He said total war expenditures are now at the rate of approximately $2,000,000,000 a month and may surpass $3,000,000,000 a month during fiscal 1943. The President said he could not predict ultimate costs "because I cannot predict the changing fortunes of war," but he proposed an increase in tax collections to $27,000,000,000.

He asked careful Congressional considerations of income taxes collected at the source, payroll taxes, excise taxes and taxes for farm aid, work relief and youth bonds.

Mr. Roosevelt said expenditures on State and local government aid would be reduced another $800,000,000 next fiscal year when the total cost will be $1,400,000,000 or about half of the sum for the present year.

Production Program
The Office for Emergency Management reported increased pooling of aircraft production facilities within the industry and with the auto industry, and concentration on superior types of planes. The OEM said in almost every month of 1942 additional plants will begin production of planes with parts supplied by industrial pools.

The War Department reported at least one plant of each of the 13 types required for the munitions program was completed in 1941, making a total of 28 now in operation. The announcement said 28 more will begin production soon.

OPM Director Knudsen announced the auto industry must double its scheduled war output to handle $5,000,000,000 additional war contracts. OPM formed a 10-member industry-labor committee to study conversion of the industry to war products.

Employment
Labor Secretary Perkins reported

ed 15,000,000 workers will be engaged in war production by the end of 1942—three times as many as were so employed in the fourth quarter of 1941. There will be only a relatively small increase in total employment, however, Miss Perkins said, because many persons now working in civilian-goods industry will be shifted to war work. WPA announced 380,000 persons were unemployed in December, 100,000 less than the previous month.

Conservation of Materials
OPM announced industrial conservation programs will be set up in more than 30 industrial centers to wreck old machinery and equipment to salvage needed materials; to minimize waste and spoilage; to handle scrap and speed its return to users.

OPM also recommended elimination of special deliveries of milk and substitution of every-other-day delivery for daily delivery to conserve tires. The agency recommended manufacturers simplify the types of bottles and other containers and eliminate those not necessary; ordered all tin and lead scrap under rationing control restricted use of ethyl alcohol in toilet soaps, mouth washes, rubbing alcohol, candy glazes cut use of certain materials in manufacture of vending machines dispensing cigarettes food, candy and other items; cut the amount of wool for civilian use to 80 percent of last year; and restricted the use of copper in certain radio parts.

OPM granted permission to auto manufacturers to make 204,848 cars in January in order to use up parts already made before the plants are converted to war production. Congress passed a law permitting the President to order daylight saving time to save electric power.

Prices
The President sent a message to Congress asking for provision for a single price administrator for all prices in the price control legislation now under consideration. The OPM issued a pamphlet, "How to Stop Inflation" explaining in non-technical language the causes of inflation, measures taken in other countries and what can be done here to keep prices down. The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported wholesale prices are now at the highest level since 1939—17.6 percent above this time last year.

Civilian Defense
The President appointed James M. Landis, Dean of the Harvard Law School as Executive of the Office of Civilian Defense to direct the civilian defense program, under the general supervision of Director LaGuardia, who is also

Mayor of New York City. The House and Senate passed and sent to conference a bill appropriating $100,000,000 for civilian defense. OCD asked its regional directors to obtain from State and city governments all possible equipment needed by the auxiliary firemen, policemen, air raid wardens and other volunteers. Director McNutt of the Defense Health and Welfare Services set up in each of the 48 States a State Nursing Council on student nurses and enrollment of 50,000 young women in nursing schools in 1942.

Agriculture
The Oklahoma Agriculture Defense Board established an experimental "machinery bank" to provide a reservoir of spare parts for farm equipment. All idle farming equipment in Oklahoma, 32,000 farms will be centrally located, repaired and made available to farmers as they need it.

Pan-American Relations
OEM announced that for the first time in recent history, U. S. imports from Latin America have been larger than exports. U. S. trade in Latin America, the agency said, was one-third larger than in the corresponding period of 1940 and about 75 percent larger than in the first three quarters of 1939. The State Department elevated the U. S. legations in Paraguay, Ecuador and Bolivia to the rank of embassies in "formal recognition of the importance of developments" leading to Pan-American solidarity. Under Secretary of State Welles left Washington to attend the Pan American conference of foreign ministers at Rio de Janeiro January 15.

The War Front
The White House announced the U. S., Britain, the Netherlands and the Dominion governments agreed to a unified command in the Southwest Pacific area with all sea, land and air forces under Gen. Wavell of the British Army, with Lt. Gen. Brett, of the U. S. Army Air Forces, as next in command. Gen. MacArthur commander in the Philippines, reported his lines holding against renewed Japanese attacks. The Army and Navy reported sinking of three enemy cargo ships of 10,000 tons each, one enemy transport and more than a score of Japanese bombing and fighting planes. The Marine Corps announced that new reports showed that the defenders of Wake Island had sunk one cruiser, four destroyers, one submarine and one gunboat before succumbing. The President cited the entire Wake garrison for heroism.

The White House announced the RAF dropped more than 2,000,000 American pamphlets on Nazi-occupied France stressing the historic ties between the American and French people. The pamphlets included pictures of the Statue of Liberty and quotations from the President's speeches.

The President set February 16 for selective service registration of men from 20 to 44 who have not previously registered.

Have you heard about the (party)??? Yes sir; another card party. All kinds of card playing, old fashioned, new fashioned and all the contractors will be there too. That name "Contractors" ought to bring 'em out hadn't it? I think this one is going to be an old ring tailed peeler too, for there's going to be thirty of the prettiest gals you ever did see hostessing around that Odd Fellows hall down there. They are going to have eats too. Yes Sir. Plenty of good apple pie like grandmother used to make, and coffee brewed to the good old brown nectar with good cream in it.

Now as they tell me—this 'ere party is something different in the way of prizes. Every feller in this city has been solicited for a prize of some kind, and my next door neighbor whispered something about there would be everything from a free shave to a tin dipper. Yes Sir and there will be so many prizes that half the folks there will have a chance at 'em, and they tell, they are going to do every thing to dispose of these 'ere prizes, but draw Numbers, as that, according to some folks in town ain't legal. Beats all how pious some folks are. But any way folks its to be on Tuesday night on the 20th day of January and we hope to see you there, for this is for the good of the cause, and as them Rebekahs say (who is at the head of this 'ere thing) that it is one of the high lights of the season, for the benefit of our brave boys and fellow countrymen. The Red Cross and British War Relief Society.

Yes and another good thing about this time too is that there will be a fresh air taxi, at call at any time to take some you folks there who don't want to walk very far, so they said to tell yer to just call "Amos and Andy Taxi Stand" Telephone No. 123.

I'll be see'in you there..... Aunt Hepzie

DEFENSE NEEDS RUBBER—SAVE YOUR TIRES

Tire rationing, the first real economic blow to the man in the street as a result of the war has brought home the fact that rubber tops the list of strategic materials going into the arsenal for America's armies.

As important as steel and as indispensable as aluminum, rubber is a military essential for war equipment that ranges from boots to gas masks, jeep wagons and trucks to tanks, bombers to battleships. Today's doughboy rolls on rubber.

Supplementing the thousands of posters at gas stations and dealer's stores — "Defense Needs Rubber—Save Your Tires"; "Your Part: Get the Most out of Your Tires"—the public is being advised on the why and how of tire conservation and told that anyone who uses a car unnecessarily is taking rubber from jeep wagons, gun carriages and the bullet-proof gas tanks on the country's planes.

Military requirements for rubber according to data assembled by the OEM Regional Information Office in Boston, reveal the following figures:

In a 35,000 ton battleship, for example, there are 75 tons of rubber—150,000 pounds, or enough to make some 10,345 tires.

A 28 ton tank (medium size) takes 1750 pounds of rubber.

A gas mask requires 1.81 pound of rubber.

A 10-ton pontoon bridge requires 3,200 pounds of rubber.

Two hundred of a pound of rubber goes into every roll of adhesive plaster required by the Medical Corps.

Into every raincoat purchased by the Army go 2.14 pounds of rubber.

A half-ton truck takes 125 pounds of rubber, mostly in tires.

A 2½ ton truck takes approximately 525 pounds of rubber. These are 8-wheel affairs, using 12 ply tires and usually carrying 4 extra tires as spares.

A cable assembly used by the signal corps requires 150 pounds of rubber.

A 75 mm gun carriage requires 175.3 pounds of rubber. A troop carrier takes 332 pounds. A 37 mm anti-aircraft gun carriage 190 pounds. A scout car uses 332 pounds.

Tires for planes require anywhere from 33 pounds each to 96 pounds, depending on the size and type of plane. Inner tubes for those are range from 24 pounds to 55½ pounds.

Bullet-proof gas tanks on flying fortresses use 1246 pounds of rubber the P40 pursuit gas tanks take 90 pounds.

Pneumatic rafts carried by planes in case of emergency use require 29 pounds of rubber each.

THE ANALGESIC (pain-reliever) in Alka-Seltzer acts quickly because it is fully dissolved and ready to go to work as soon as you swallow it. Its pain-relieving action is made more positive by alkaline buffers which protect it and speed up its action.

Because Alka-Seltzer contains an analgesic and alkaline buffer salts, it is used by millions for the relief not only of Headache, but of Cold Symptoms, Acid Indigestion, Muscular Fatigue, "Morning After" and Muscular Pains.

Turnabout in North Africa

JUGOSLAV AIRMEN, relaxing against their seaplane, smile contentedly during a rest pause behind the Allied lines in North Africa. Last spring they fought against hopeless odds in the Battles of Yugoslavia, Greece and Crete and were finally forced to retreat to the Middle East. But now they are on the winning side of the argument, and in the last few weeks, together with Allied Polish, Czechoslovak, Free French, Anzac, British and Indian forces, they have not only recaptured most of Libya from the Axis, but in addition have smashed and wiped out the bulk of the German and Italian armies in Africa.

Hale a Candidate for Congress

In announcing my candidacy at the June Primary for the Republican nomination for Congress I am actuated by the conviction that our present Representative is out of sympathy with national policy and with opinion in the District. He has steadily advocated an isolationist policy opposing conscription, opposing any form of aid to the enemies of Hitler, opposing the retention of selectees in service.

Ever since April, 1940 I have publicly insisted that the destruction of Hitler was the first issue before the American people. I predicted that Hitler would attack us if he could; and now he has attacked us. I urged an all out policy of arming ourselves and aiding the Allies fighting Hitler. This was the policy which Congress adopted but which our Congressmen never would adopt.

Thanks to this policy we now have valuable Allies in Britain, Russia and China. This is a war we CAN win and MUST win if we are to remain a sovereign nation. We cannot lose it if we use all our manpower, our resources, our brains and energies. I say that we are fighting to save America while our Congressmen still seem to think we are fighting as the dupes of Britain.

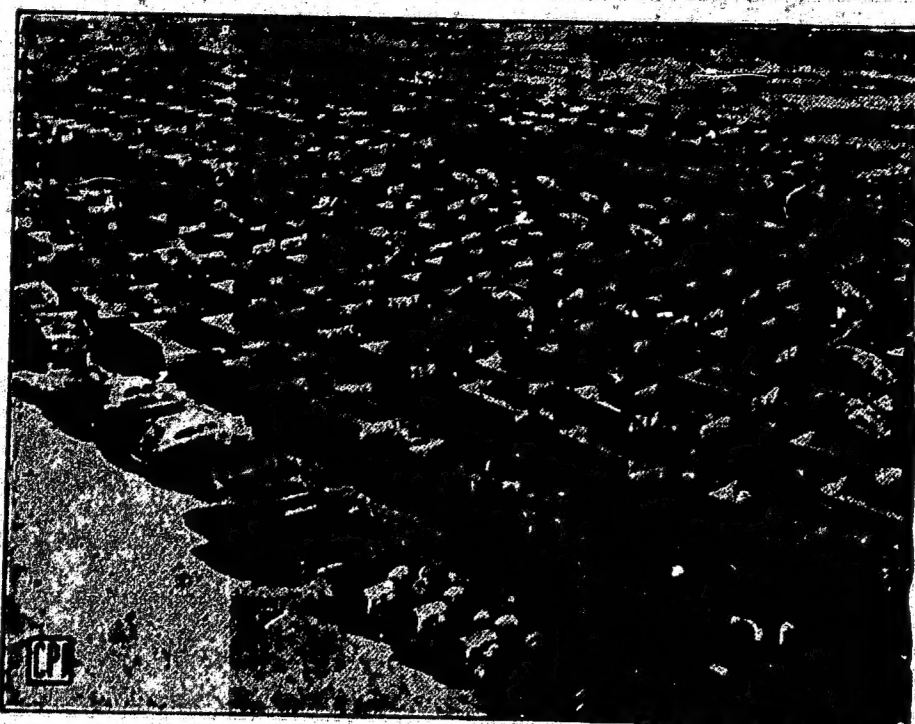

The slogan is no longer national defense but Victory for America—the destruction of Hitlerism. Beyond that is the job of conserving the victory which we threw away in the years after 1919. America cannot have isolation. She must collaborate with other powers for a rule of reason in the world. I shall enlarge on these views in the course of the campaign.

No part of the country has more at stake in this war than this district, and in representing this district, I should never be unmindful of its interests. On the basis of these convictions I appeal for the support of our electorate.

ROBERT HALE

May You See It in the Office.

ALL MADE IN ONE DAY

Passed by Congress.

It was Canada that supplied most of the mechanized transport used by General Wavell in his famous North Africa drives against the Italians in Libya and Ethiopia. It is Canada that is making much of the mechanized transport being massed in the British Isles to ward off invasion, and under the Hyde Park Agreement, such vehicles may be part of the supplies which Canada will send to the United States as exchange for war commodities.

Canada needs and in order to allow the great motor industries of the United States to concentrate their energies on other things. Already the motor industry of the Dominion has produced more than 120,000 mechanical transport vehicles of various types and the picture shows just part of the output of a single day at one of these Canadian factories.
